

Benefits of ICWCI Membership

1. ICWCI are the recognised Body for the Construction Inspectorate
2. There are 20 regional Meeting centres, throughout the UK, called Chapters, undertaking organised CPD venues, discussing and sharing other professionally related issues, and visiting various professionally interesting locations. Chapters run social programmes, including major formal affairs, running their own newsletter, developing and maintaining links with other local professional associations and construction related establishments.
3. The Institute provides a CPD mentoring system for those who wish to develop their professionalism in line with our policy that Life Long Learning is essential to development
4. We publish a monthly magazine, "Site Recorder", which is widely circulated throughout construction related Professional Bodies and Trade Organisations. Including the latest news in relation to regulating issues, health & safety information and advice; news from Chapters, CPD and other training opportunities, product info and installation, product testing and reviews, guidelines and recruitment advertising.
5. We have a long term association with a Specialist Insurance brokerage, providing discounts to members seeking professional and indemnity insurance.
6. We have a strong relationship with a recruitment and placement consultancy who operate nationwide.
7. Members of our Professional Standards Committee can be approached for technical advice from individual Members.
8. Annual conference weekend in different locations. Incorporating at least 4 seminars, arrange visits for delegates and their partners, Black tie formal dinner and ICWCI open Golf Tournament.
9. We publish a variety of standard appointment documents and forms and discounted major written publications, such as "Clerk of Works Handbook, 2006 edition" and the "Site Inspection Guide for the Construction Team"
10. We are a full member of the Construction Industry Council, the umbrella body for the Construction Industry, maintaining strong links with other influential bodies: British Standards Institute.
11. We organise and promote our own Biennial Awards Programme, recognising the key contribution that Site Inspectors make in completion of projects.
12. We go back 125 years, with a strong reputation for quality and professionalism.
13. The designatory letters LICWCI, MICWCI and FICWCI are widely known and respected throughout the construction industry, carrying a degree of deserved elitism that is virtually unique within the industry.
14. In 2009 the Institute launched a new website www.icwci.org which now features a Members area and a forum for sharing ideas and questions within the membership.
15. Members of the Institute can benefit from discounts at selected Hotels around the country.
16. ICWCI are a recognised Professional Body with the Construction Skills, which enables Members to qualify for CSCS cards. A letter confirming Membership of ICWCI can be sent to CSCS on request, so as long as Members pass the exam they are eligible for a CSCS Site Inspector Card.
